LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Grace and sin are found together. As much as our hearts long for union with God, there is always that part of us that resists. As much as I wholeheartedly believe in God, there is a dimension of disbelief with which I also wrestle. Even though we may seek purity and integrity in all of our thoughts, words and deeds, there is also the path toward weakness and sin that we find ourselves traversing. Just as weeds can easily overtake the best of gardens, so too can weakness and sin overtake and overwhelm a person. The call is to realize the power the weeds of sin have to choke us off from God's presence. While God allows the wheat and the weeds to exist together, we must keep our eyes fixed on God's mercy and forgiveness and resist the death that comes from giving way to sin and evil. In God's time, the eternal harvest will come, and we will no longer have to worry about the weeds. For now, we must be vigilant and regularly seek the assistance of the Master Gardener.

THIS WEEK'S READINGS

For your might is the source of justice;
your mastery over all things makes you lenient to all. (Wis 12:16)

Psalm:

Lord, you are good and forgiving. (Ps 86)

Second Reading:

And the one who searches hearts
knows what is the intention of the Spirit,
because it intercedes for the holy ones

Second Reading:

And the one who searches hearts
knows what is the intention of the Spirit,
because it intercedes for the holy ones

Gospel:

"Let them grow together until harvest;
then at harvest time I will say to the harvesters,
"First collect the weeds and tie them in bundles for burning;
but gather the wheat into my barn."'" (Mt 13:30b)

"He replied, 'No, if you pull up the weeds
you might uproot
the wheat along with them. Let them grow
together until harvest;
Then at harvest time
I will say to the harvesters, "First collect the weeds and tie them in bundles for burning; but gather
the wheat into
my barn."'" "
