St. Mary's Cemetery Cleanup

Spring clean up will take place in the cemetery beginning on Monday, April 26th and will run throughout that week. All items on the ground, left around the base of a monument, will be removed and discarded at that time. Families should remove decorations that they wish to save prior to that date. Items left on the ground get caught in mowers and trimmers and present a safety hazard to the caretakers. As always, items securely attached to a raised monument are permissible and will remain in place.

Sacrament of the Eucharist

As of April 11, 2021, the second Sunday of Easter, communion will be distributed at the customary time during mass. It is still necessary for all of us to maintain 6 feet of distance from others while coming forward for communion. In an effort to ensure social distancing, the process to distribute communion will be as follows:

Eucharistic ministers will be positioned at the side aisles to administer the Eucharist.

Those seated in the side pews will come forward first, walking up and back by way of the side aisles. We kindly ask these parishioners to walk forward next to the center pews, and walk back to your seat. Hopefully, this will prevent anyone from having to cross through the communion line.

Once those seated to the far left and right have received communion, folks seated in the center may come forward, also by way of the side aisle. After receiving the Eucharist, these parishioners will return to their pew by way of the center aisle.

Thank you for your continued cooperation. We continue to adapt our procedures as things slowly begin to normalize but truly appreciate your understanding.

Birthright of Ballston Spa is running low on some essential items that all new mothers need. They are seeking diapers (size 4) and baby wipes. Donations can be dropped off in the bassinet in the vestibule of church. Thank you for your assistance!

SUNDAY'S READINGS Easter Sunday/April 4, 2021

First Reading:

"To him all the prophets bear witness, that everyone who believes in him will receive forgiveness of sins through his name." (Acts 10:43)

Psalm:

This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad. (Ps 118)
Or Alleluia.

Second Reading:

Think of what is above, not what is on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. (Col 3:2-3)

Gospel:

Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. (Jn 20:8)

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Alleluia! Christ is risen! About today's feast, St. Augustine writes: "And he departed from our sight that we might return to our hearts and find him there. For he left us, and behold, he is here." Christ's resurrected presence lives not only in the highest heaven but in the fragile human heart. Christ's life inspires us and moves us to see a future for every human being and discover our true purpose and meaning. Every human being has a desire to live, and this cry can be heard within. There is a longing for a connection with Someone greater than ourselves that gives an import to our existence that we cannot supply. Today, our deepest questions find answers.

Please pray for all the sick and suffering and for anyone close to death; for those troubled in body, mind, or heart, and for their care givers in a special way: Carol Travis, Anna Papperman, Alexa Papperman, Marcia Trombly, Margaret Rose DeLucia, Connie Lavolette, Muriel Smith, Patricia Komoroski, Jack Neumann, Mary Beth Woodard, Carol Hervieux-Potts, Althea Alger, Sandee Murphy, Irene Marra, Maria Pascarella, Robert R.
