Visiting Missionary

At the masses on July 17th and 18th, Fr. Simon Udemgba, a priest from the diocese of Okigwe, Nigeria, who is working here in our diocese of Albany, will be preaching a Mission Cooperation Plan, to benefit his home diocese, the Catholic Diocese of Okigwe, Nigeria. Please welcome him and thank you for your generosity to his appeal.

St. Mary's Church Mask Guidelines

We ask unvaccinated parishioners to continue to wear a mask at all times while in church. We are trusting that unvaccinated folks will remain mindful of the risk they pose to others, particularly the older, more vulnerable parishioners, should they contract and spread the virus unknowingly while at church unmasked.

Masks are no longer required at all for anyone who is fully vaccinated. Of course, if you are vaccinated and choose to continue to wear a mask, you certainly have that option as well.

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

What We Carry from Town to Town

In my experience, there are two kinds of people: the folks who kick off their shoes the second they walk through the door, and the ones who don't.

People can feel strongly about this on both sides. The main thrust of the Shoes-Off Brigade seems to be this: we track a lot of weird stuff on the soles of our feet. Little reminders of all the places we've been — whether it's a private home or a public place — cling to our shoes long after we leave.

This same theory applies to our spiritual lives. As human beings and as disciples, we visit a lot of figurative towns and pick up a lot of figurative dust. Sinfulness. Shame. Defeat. Anger. Fear. Doubt. No matter how hard we try to keep free of it, these things have a way of attaching themselves to us, sometimes without us even noticing. We need to take a good look at what unhelpful and unconstructive baggage from our past we're tracking into our present and future encounters.

What is the "town" God is asking you to visit today in His name? Is it a tough conversation with a friend, a brief witness to a stranger in the checkout line, a call to be present to someone in your family? Before you go, remember, shake off the dust. Don't let a past disappointment constrain you. Don't allow yesterday's failures or burdens to keep you from the joy of today's witness, whatever form it might take.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
