This group will also be open to Catholics who have been baptized but who have received neither First Holy Communion nor Confirmation. Very soon, we will be able to invite inquirers and their questions. Please watch this space for coming details. ### Emmanuel Is Coming

As you may remember, we typically include a special bulletin insert during the four weeks of Advent as well as during Lent. This year, that weekly insert is being replaced with a 12 page brochure entitled "Emmanuel is Coming".

A publication of Our Sunday Visitor, this color brochure helps us prepare ourselves for Advent and the celebration of Christ's birth by providing reflections and inspirational content. These brochures will be available in the back of church. We invited each family to take one to enjoy throughout the Advent season.

An electronic copy of the brochure will be included in the weekly email correspondence that is sent by the parish office to every family with an email address on file.
